Attraction #1 Temple of Olympian Zeus

The Temple of Olympian Zeus is found in Athens. This temple can be found in the center of Athens, southeast of the Acropolis. Building the temple began in the 6th century BC but it was not completed until the reign of the Emperor Hadrian in the 2nd century AD. It was the largest temple in Greece at the time. The temple is made of fine marble and originally measured 96 meters long and 40 meters wide. There were originally 104 Corinthian columns, each 17 meters high. Only 15 columns remain standing today. A 16th column blew over in 1852 and is still lying where it fell.
